

Dear HOTTQ Guild,

What a beautiful time of the year we are experiencing! The flowering trees, azaleas, and bulbs are beautiful! Some yards look like beautiful floral quilts!

Our May meeting will be on the 1st. Same place and time! Looking forward to hear what Jessica has to tell us about the quilt show.

See you on May 1st!

Happy quilting,

Our speaker for this month is Tina Craig. Tina will be speaking to us about EPP vs. FPP.

Hi! I'm Tina Craig. I started quilting in 1990 as an unemployed newlywed looking for something to do. I took a beginner sampler quilt class at Colchester Mill Fabric Store and haven't stopped stitching yet. I try to challenge myself to learn something new with every quilt.

When we moved to a seaside town in southern Rhode Island in 1997, Seaside Stitches was born. Back then, I was making and selling hundreds of paper-pieced quilt block lapel pins. Now, I prefer to teach you how to make your own!

I specialize in precision piecing (foundation paper piecing and English paper piecing) and domestic machine quilting. I enjoy learning new techniques and have even stepped out of my comfort zone to try art quilting.

Monthly Mini Quilts - The theme for April is Memorial Day      May will be Road Trip!

Jump in any time, we're making original 8 x 10 mini quilts on a theme each month. Make a mini quilt or a block based on your interpretation of the theme. Reveal for each month is at the next meeting. The theme will be posted to the website under member information>monthly mini challenge.

Guild Sew Day

Join us Monday May 8 for our monthly Guild Sew Day in the same room as our Guild meeting at the Swisher Center. We begin at 9:30 and end by 3:30. Look for the blue trash can holding the back door open. If you are the first person to arrive, enter the building at the left side through the double glass handicapped doors entrance. Turn right to room 113. Please prop door open with the blue trash can. Outside doors are locked for security reasons.

I actually layered a quilt top with pool noodles in April with Penny's help. It was so easy and is now my favorite method. Look it up on "you tube". I plan on basting at least one quilt top each Sew Day. Can't quilt it if it's not layered. I even had time to visit and plan another project.

Please join us. Choose your hours. Projects can be sewing or any handcraft. Or stop by just to visit. Several ladies are mastering cross stitch with very modern patterns and hoops. It's a fun and social time to catch up with friends. Hope to see you there!

Heart of the Triad Quilt Guild
April 3, 2023
Swisher Center

April meeting was opened by Marty Smith, the Quilt of Valor chair for the guild. She welcomed the veterans and their families. There was a short introduction of the purpose of the Quilt of Valor organization. Then Marty honored nineteen veterans with their quilts. The veterans were given a standing ovation by the membership.

Alice Wise, President, resumed meeting. She welcomed everyone. She recognized two visitors to guild meeting and one new member.

Alice wished the following members a happy birthday in April.

-Marcia Pittman, Mark Craven, Renita Gray, Joanne Saunders, Kathy Motsinger and Alice Wise

Alice Wise then turned down the meeting over to Jessica Shouse, Vice President. Jessica introduced the evening's presenter, Mary J. Puckett of Zippy Quilts. Her presentation was on scrap management and scrap quilting.

After the presentation, Alice Wise resumed the business portion of the meeting.

- Approval of the March minutes. Approved with no changes. Alan Nichols gave first approval and Linda Nichols seconded.
- Treasury report was given by Lori Procter, treasurer. March opening balance was $21,959.09. $310.00 was deposited and there is one outstanding check for $25.95. Ending total for March was $22,243.14
- Membership. Linda Nichols reported two new members. She also reported as Raffle Quilt Chair that the quilt will be raffled off September 30, 2023. She would be at quilt show in Greenville, SC April 20, 21, 22.
- Hospitality, Elaine Fotia. Linda Nichols reported that she had released Elaine from her hospitality responsibility due to her other commitments.
- Newsletter, Ellen Hart, no new information on that topic. Ellen is also overseeing the theme quilts. May's theme is "Memorial Day". Tracy Burkart will posting on website.
- Community Outreach. Linda Fishell is the chair. Linda gave quilt kits to be assembled. She had the members who had finished quilts in March to show the rest of the guild. Prior to the meeting Linda did a presentation on sewn on bindings and quilt as you go quilting.
- Quilts of Valor Chair, Marty Smith, reported that a veterans group from Randolph County that acts as the honor guard at veteran's funerals requested that their members receive valor quilts. 21 quilts are needed for a presentation in July. Marty issued this information as a challenge to the guild.
- Facebook and website chair, Tracy Burkart reported no news.
- Retreat chair, Tracy Burkart reported one spot left. See website for detail.

Alice Wise asked about new business. Cindi Sullivan said the group needs to discuss whether to have a quilt show in 2024 or postpone til 2025. Discussions ensued. The problem with waiting would put us in competition with the Forsyth Guild who would be scheduled to have show in 2025. The quilt guild voted unanimously to have show in 2024. Cindi Sullivan then reported that we need to name a chairman now. This would allow the guild to start making arrangements for this show. Jessica Shouse said she would co-chair. Ellen Hart agreed to co-chair.

Show and tell - There were five presentations

After show and tell, Alice Wise closed the meeting.
