Dear HOTTQG,

What a wonderful Holiday Celebration we had at our December meeting. The food was delicious, the brisket and BBQ were wonderful, and the games were fun. Thanks everyone for making it a festive night.

In my haste to get to the fun, I forgot to call for a discussion and vote on the minutes from the November meeting and the treasurer report. Please review these and we will have a discussion and vote at our February meeting.

Don't forget there is no meeting on January 1st but we will have a quilt show work session and book, magazine, and Quilters Market drop off on Wednesday, January 10th at 6:30 at Swisher center. Clean out your sewing rooms!

I wish each of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

January Sew Day

The holidays are over and it's your turn for some "me time". Join your friends on Monday January 8, 2024 from 9:30 to 3:30 for our first Sew Day of the new year. Remember our Quilt Show is in May and you need to get your quilts started and/ or finished. Did you include quilting in your New Year's resolutions? Our Sew Days provide uninterrupted time for you to sew or work on your fiber art crafts.

We meet at the Swisher Center in the same room as our monthly Guild meetings. The outside door is locked for security reasons. If you are the first to arrive, enter the building to the left through the glass doors. Turn right down the hallway to room 114. Open the outside door. If it's too cold to prop the door open, place blue trash can outside as signal to others to knock on the door. If the weather is bad, check local broadcasts for Forsyth Tech closing schedule before leaving your house.

Start 2024 with a new routine - come to Sew Day the second Monday of each month! See you there.

Announcements

Wednesday, January 10, 6:30-8:30 pm in our regular meeting room at Swisher Center:

Quilt Show Donation Drop Off and Prep Meeting

Bring Silent Auction donations and the Quilter's Market will appreciate fabric, tools, kits, and supplies that quilters will use.

If you have donations for the Quilter's Market before the January 10th meeting, text or call Lisa Keltos at (917) 224-6358.

Donated books and magazines can be brought to meetings for the next few months.

💡 Instead of carrying them into the building, come in and let Linda Fishell know you have donations. You can then move books and magazines from car to car.

These cold winter months are a perfect time to work on a quilt for the show. Our quilt show is meant to showcase the treasures made by our members. Please plan on entering a quilt or two, each one helps make our show great!

Call Ellen at 336-240-0275 with any questions.

Fundraiser Quilt Update

Our fundraising efforts are going well for our beautiful Armenian Tiles quilt. Ticket sales by Guild members are increasing at each meeting. Asking friends and relatives for their support is not an easy task. Your efforts are greatly appreciated.

The next event for our quilt is January 12 & 13, 2024 in Sanford NC at the Quilting and Fiber Art Marketplace. Log onto quiltersgallery.net for additional information and a $1.00 off admission coupon.

We are on the wait-list for the January 26 & 27, 2024 Quilting and Needle Art Extravaganza in Statesville NC. Cindy and Pattie are kind to allow us a space at their event. Hope you are able to attend one or both of their shows.

Once again, thank you to everyone who has volunteered at the previous events and members selling tickets. If you know of events in the Spring that we may be able to attend, let us know.
