

President's Message

Hi Quilters,

Hope this note finds you well and enjoying the nice weather!

Last month's meeting was great! So many people in attendance! The program was good and informative !

Our next meeting is March 6th at the Swisher Center!

Until then,

Alice

March 6

Mark and Teri Craven are a quilting duo who market themselves as Pops and Momma Rose Art. You'll find out about who the Gees Bend Quilters are, where they live, their history, their quilting style, and how they influenced abstract and modern art. When they discovered the Gees Bend Quilters of Alabama in 2017, this creative duo launched their passion for wonky, improv and whimsical quilting. Their improv art quilts are meant for hanging as art and most often smaller pieces are matted and framed as fine art. Their work is best described as abstract painting with fabric. Pops and Momma Rose take the art and craft of quilting "beyond the bed".

Guild Sew Day

We'll meet on Monday, March 13 at the Swisher Center in room 114. Sew Day begins at 9:30 and ends about 3:00. Bring your UFOs, new project, hand sewing, cross stitch, etc. It's a great time to give you and your project time with friends.

If the back door is not propped open with the small trash can, enter through the glass door at the left of the building. The inside door to room 114 will be open. The Center does not unlock the back door for security purposes.

Look forward to seeing you.

Heart of the Triad Quilt Guild minutes
February 6, 2023
Swisher Center

President Alice Wise opened the meeting. She welcomed everyone. There were 4 guests and three new members.

Alice recognized the February birthdays of the members that were present.

The meeting was turned over to Jessica Shouse, the guild Vice President and program coordinator.

Jessica introduced the evenings presenter, Karen Lee Carter. Her demonstration was entitled "Ecstasy of Embellishment." Presentation showed the group that embellishment materials could be almost anything from buttons, pins, and yarn. She showed many of her art quilts.

Alice Wise resumed the business portion of the meeting.

- Approval of Secretary's December minutes. There were no minutes since there was no business meeting.

- Treasurer Lori Procter reported January starting balance at $22,457.12.

One check was written to pay the annual storage building fee of $1,010.00

Ending January balance was $21,447.12

- Linda Nichols, membership chair, reported 81 people in attendance and three new members

- Hospitality, Elaine Fotia, thanked Alan Nichols for providing several cobblers for our refreshments

- Ellen Hart, newsletter chair, was informed several members did not receive the January newsletter. Ellen promised to resend the newsletter as soon as possible

- Linda Fishell, Community Outreach Chair, reported that we were giving quilts to long term patients at Baptist Hospital. Also working with Next Step Ministries to provide quilts to battered women. Linda had quilt kits she was giving to members to put together. She was also set up to show how to quilt the kits as you go.

- Quilts of Valor, Marty Smith, thanked all the members for their participation. She was in contact with a disabled Veteran shelter and they need 21 quilts. See Marty for more information. The presentation for April has 19 veterans to be honored. She plans to cap the number at 20

- Facebook and Website Chair, Tracy Burkart, said that she would make sure the newsletter from Ellen was posted on the Guild's sites

- Two sets of door prizes were awarded along with prizes from our speaker, Karen Lee Carter

- Ellen Hart had those who participated in the monthly challenge quilt of the theme "Love is" to present their quilts. At least twelve members showed their work. The March theme is "blossoms, seeds and roots."

- Sew Day is February 13 from 9 to 3 at Swisher Center

- Tracy Burkart, Retreat Chair, stated retreat scheduled for September 21st thru 24th. Ten members have submitted their deposit. 18 is the limit. Day campers will be considered. See website for details.

- Show and tell. Ten presenters and some of them had multiple quilts to show the guild

- Raffle quilt. See Linda Nichols for tickets. For more details see guild website

- Alice Wise adjourned the meeting.
