Greetings guild members,

I hope everyone stayed safe and warm during our two winter events. Hopefully, the cold weather has passed, and we are on the way to Spring.

It was nice to see so many join in on the Zoom presentation and meeting for February. I know I will be eliminating some of my scraps now. For those of you who could not join, we did not have show and tell, so I hope we will have lots of pretty things to see at our March meeting. Also, no door prizes were drawn, so we will draw double in March!

Looking forward to seeing you all.

Amy

MARCH SEW DAY

Our Monday March 9, 2026 Guild Sew Day will start at 9:00 am at the Swisher Center. We are usually in room #113 and sew until 4:00.

If you are the first to arrive, please go to the front desk to check out the key to our room. Unlock the inside corridor room and prop open the outside door. The key does not open the back door - it will automatically lock when closed.

Join your friends for a day of social and sewing / handwork uninterrupted time. There is ample space and tables to spread out your projects. As usual, I will be basting quilt tops. Remember to bring your extension cord and extra lighting.

I look forward to seeing you. If you have any questions, call or text me.

Presented by: Alamance Piecemakers Quilt Guild & Burlington Carousel Quilt Guild

We are inviting you to attend this year's Art Feeds the Soul Quilt show March 5-7 at the Elon Community Church. This show features quilts from both Burlington quilt guilds, The Alamance Piecemakers and the Burlington Carousel Quilters. We hope you'll consider visiting this year and seeing more beautiful pieces of textile art. Please tell your friends and neighbors! The event is free to the public. This year, we will offer a beautiful door prize quilt, vendors (including scissor sharpening), our traditional basket raffles and quilt sales, a bed-turning (featuring heirloom quilts), and quilting demonstrations.
