

President's Note

Dear Fellow Quilters,

Just a month and a few days until our Quilt Show! Are you ready? I'm excited to see all the beautiful quilts hanging at the show! Be sure you volunteer to help out.

Our meeting will be March 7th at The Swisher Center. Invite someone new to come with you! We filled up the room last month and had a great meeting. Get there at 6 for fellowship and refreshments. If you have any snacks you would like to share with the group, bring them. I'm sure they will be enjoyed!

See you March 7th!

QUILTS OF VALOR

News:

It is with a heavy heart that I must put in my resignation from chairing the Quilts of Valor Community Outreach Committee. I am unable to get to the meetings in time to make presentations due to a new job. We will need someone who is willing to take this over and be the liaison between the Quilts of Valor Foundation and our guild.

The duties include: utilize online software to obtain names of nominated veterans in our area and report the process to completion; coordinate the making, long-arming and binding of quilts; make presentations to veterans.

All of this takes only a couple of hours a month. You could certainly make it more if you wish. I have a collection of fabric donated to our committee specifically for the use of making QOVs.

If you are interested in heading this committee up, please contact Tracy Burkart at 336-817-3347 or quiltedsanity@aol.com for more information.

Thank you for what you do for our veterans.

HOTTQG Meeting Minutes

Alice Wise called the meeting to order at 6:28 pm and welcomed everyone. There were 29 people in attendance including 3 visitors: Kathy White, Eileen Kowalczyk and Denise Jessup.

Alice Wise wished a happy birthday to all members with a February birthday.

Alice Wise made several announcements regarding members we should keep in our thoughts and prayers:

- Cindi Sullivan is scheduled for knee surgery on Wednesday.
- Julie Bodford passed away unexpectedly on January 27th.
- Laura Skinner lost her mother and is retiring.

Lawonne McCoy led a game with the Valentine's Day fat quarters we brought.

Our speaker for the evening was Karen Comstock from Quiltricks who gave an informative presentation on "Busting UFO's" followed by a trunk show of quilts.

Business:

Treasurer – No activity in January.

Secretary – No report.

Membership – We had three (3) visitors. This is the last night to join if you want to be in our Quilt Show.

Quilt Show entry forms are due February 25th. Contact Ellen Hart if you have questions or need assistance.

Community Outreach – Linda Fishell gave an overview of the process for making community quilts. More than 300 quilts have been donated to Novant Oncology over the past five (5) years.

Quilts of Valor – Tracy Burkart brought kits to the meeting. She currently has three (3) recipient names and may do a presentation(s) at the Quilt Show.

Door prize winners were Anita Berrier, Sharon Dorminey and Nancy Toth.

Quilt Show:

Mark Craven asked for everyone's assistance with publicizing our upcoming Quilt Show. The show is only 60 days away. Posters and bookmarks were handed out and members were asked to start publicizing the event.

Mary Jo Wimberly passed around sign-up sheets for Quilt Show volunteers.

Gloria Stickney showed everyone how to share our Quilt Show information with Facebook friends.

Additional reminders were given for Quilt Show entries (forms due February 25th), raffle ticket sales (keep selling your tickets) as well as quilting book/magazine, Silent Auction, Granny's Attic and Boutique donations. Lisa Kelos (917-224-6358) is the POC for Granny's Attic and Boutique.

Parts 1 and 2 of the mystery quilt instructions have been published in the newsletter. Tracy Burkart will bring hardcopies to the meetings for people who need them. The mystery quilt will be released in eight (8) parts with the last set of instructions provided in August.

Several members shared their quilts during Show and Tell.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:06 pm.

Together Again

2022 Quilt Show

Yes, our Quilt Show of April 8-9, 2022 is approaching fast! Are you ready? As you come into our next guild meeting, look around. Your committee chairs will be stationed around the room.

Gather those items you've been saving for Granny's Boutique. Lisa will gladly accept your donations. We need gently used notions, supplies and fabric.

Anything in your sewing /quilting room that is taking up valuable space. Relieve your conscience- someone else would love to finish that UFO.

Handmade boutique items. An item already made can make our buyers smile.

All these items must be "tagged", measured, folded and displayed attractively. Please, no plastic bags. Tags, rubber bands, ribbons, safety pins and ink pens will be available for you if needed. We need your help stocking our stores attractively.

Bring your calendar. Mary Jo will be available with our Volunteer lists. We have fewer members so we need for each of you to give of your time. There are sit down time slots available.

As the days continue to click off, we will be fine tuning the details of our Quilt Show. If you have any questions, let me know.

- Stitch a G and F strip together along their length. Press seam toward F. Repeat to make three F-G strip sets.
- Cut F-G strip sets into 34 ($2\frac{5}{8}$ ") squares (Figure 4).
- Join two F-G units to complete a four-patch unit as shown in Figure 5. Press seam in one direction. Repeat to make 17 four-patch units.
