

President's Note

Congratulations to Alice Wise and team!!!

It has been an honor and a pleasure to lead this talented group for the past year. I certainly wouldn't have been able to do it without your support - and wouldn't even try. Thank you for all you've done to keep us afloat during a trying time.

See you IN PERSON next month!!!

SEW DAY TO CONTINUE

Members, I have been informed the Swisher Center has reserved the second Monday of each month for our Sew Day. How nice to be able to get together after all these months. The time is 9:30 am to 3:00 pm on August 9, 2021. Park in the first parking lot as you come in the driveway. It is actually the back of the building and is easier to unload directly into classroom #14.

Our new routine will be for each attendee to bring their own iron, ironing mat and cutting supplies. This is a great time to socialize with members, get advice and ideas and uninterrupted time to just sew, sew, sew. Bring your lunch or go out with friends to nearby restaurants. Please mark your calendars! I look forward to seeing you then!

Quilt Show News

Your Quilt Show Committee Chairs are busy preparing for our April 8 and 9, 2022 show. We are meeting each month at Sedge Garden Community Center. We will update the categories and rules for quilt entries at our next meeting. We want you to be able to decide which category fits your entry and give you time to, perhaps, start a new quilt.

Keep working on your special quilts. As you organize your studios, think of items suitable for Granny's Boutique. We need handmade items for the Boutique area. Gently used sewing items, UFOs, fabric, etc is needed for our Granny's section. We will be showing examples of packaging for your donations. As we do not have a Granny's Boutique Committee Chair, it will be EVERYONE'S job to stock our "store" attractively for success. We do not want Granny's to look like a yard sale but have reasonable prices for exciting items. Attractive packaging of products can make a difference in profits.

If you have any questions or suggestions, contact Shirley Sink or Cindi Sullivan.
