

President's Note

We'll be meeting in person next month!!! I can't wait to see all of your smiling faces on Monday, June 7, at 6:30 p.m.. It has been a long, long year but we survived and can at long last, meet again.

Congratulations to all of our children, grandchildren, and loved ones graduating from high school, college or wherever. Our family doesn't have graduates this year but we've had a couple of grandchildren reach age milestones which make us feel ancient. We're counting our blessings to be so lucky to have been a part of these milestones, though. We celebrated our oldest grandson's 16th birthday here in town and traveled to FL for our oldest granddaughter's 21st birthday. Where has the time gone?!!

We are heading out of town to celebrate our oldest daughter's birthday, then back through Vidalia onion country for a visit to the farm for onions, and, finally, a Quilt of Valor award ceremony before heading back on Sunday. I wish I had enough room to haul a truck load of those sweet onions back to share with everyone but you'll have to find your own at the grocery store. Having grown up in that part of GA, I still need a trace of dirt on my onions 😊.

See you all next month!

Marty

Help name our quilt!

June 7
6:30 pm

Live and in person at Sedge Garden.

Come join us for a potluck dinner. Please bring your favorite dish with serving utensils. The food will be dished out by gloved servers. You may eat in the meeting room or at the outdoor shelter.

Following dinner we will play one game of Fill Your Card Bingo. Each Bingo card will cost one fat quarter. So if you want to play 2 cards bring 2 fat quarters. The winner of the Fill Your Card Bingo wins all the fat quarters. Don't forget to bring your show and tell. All members will need to wear a mask.

The June 14 Community Outreach sew day has been cancelled due to the success of the sew days in April and May.

Thanks to all who have participated. I appreciate your involvement more than words can say.

Community Outreach UFO's will be available at all future in person guild meetings. Please bring your Community Outreach quilts to meetings.

Thank you again for all your support.

2022 QUILT SHOW update as of May 12, 2021

Mark your calendars! Countdown to our quilt show has begun. ONLY 358 DAYS TILL TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 2022 TURN-IN QUILT DATE. Judging on Wednesday April 6. Setup on Thursday April 7 and SHOW Dates of April 8 -9, 2022. We will use the Neil Bolton Home and Garden Center at WS Fairgrounds again. Shirley Sink is our Chair and I (Cindi Sullivan) am Co-Chair. This is our first time to organize a quilt show. We are counting on everyone's help to make this show a success. It's time to start or finish your quilts.

We are currently determining our budget and selecting leaders/co-leaders for each committee. At our June meeting, we will select a name for our show. Our donation quilt is the Garden Charm pattern donated by Michel Parsons. Our show is in the spring and COVID restrictions will surely be lifted by then. Please email your suggestions to: cindisullivan@mail.com. We need to begin advertising our show and include our name.

Please join in this exciting fund raiser. We plan on more vendors than in 2019, boutique, treasures galore (previously Granny's Attic), silent auction, fabulous quilts and more!! Everyone's talents will be utilized and appreciated. It will be exciting to meet in person and plan our show in the coming months!

Shirley and Cindi

QUILTS OF VALOR

We are still looking for QOV star blocks for our block drive. The patterns can be downloaded from our website at <http://www.hottqg.com/quilts-of-valor-presentations.html>. We have plenty of fabric to give you for the blocks. Please call Tracy at 336-817-3347 to arrange to get fabric. I do not have block kits done for these yet. There are many areas of the country that have 2-3 years' wait to make and present a quilt. These blocks will help them out.

We have other block kits and quilt kits that will be available at the meetings if you would like to take one home and work on it.

May 3, 2021 Meeting Minutes:

The Zoom meeting was called to order at 6:30 by Marty Smith. 20 members were present, which represents a quorum for conducting business. There were no visitors or new members this evening.

Program - Marty Smith introduced our speaker, Danica Thomas. She gave an emotional account of life with a military husband. She is a part of the Susan Tillis Foundation and its Baby Bundle program, which donates handmade items to new mothers. Anyone interested in donating to the organization can reach Danica at danica@susantillis.org and can learn more at www.susantillis.org.

April Minutes – Minutes are approved as published.

Treasurer's Report – The quilt guild account had a beginning and ending balance of $14,219.97.

Birthdays – May birthdays were announced.

Door Prize – This month's winner was Gina Kostelecky.

Announcement/Concerns – Diana Lentz shared that her mother is improving; Gloria Stickney's mother-in-law is progressing well; Tracy Burkart's mother is also improving.

After a serious leg injury, Alan Nichols is healing and with assistance from Linda, he has continued to compete in the barbecue competitions.

Our June guild meeting will be held at Sedge Garden Community Center. Lawonne McCoy will be emailing members soon to share the details for this celebratory meeting.

Future meetings are as follows:

July's meeting will be via Zoom for the final time; thereafter, meetings will be live.

August's meeting will be held at Sedge Garden Community Center.

September – No meeting.

October and beyond will be held at The Swisher Center in Kernersville.

Renee Garner will be sending information to those attending the quilt retreat at Haw River State Park this Fall.

Committees:

Membership – Alice Wise reported no changes.

Community Outreach – Linda Fishell thanked all who were able to participate in the April Sew Day. Everyone was glad to reconnect. Upcoming Sew Days are:

May 10, 10:00 – 3:00, at the Swisher Center, Room #114.

June 14, 10:00 – 3:00 at the Swisher Center, Room #114. cancelled

There are several tasks to work on, as well as training on: 1) machine binding, and 2) 'quilt as you go' methods.

Quilts of Valor - Tracy Burkart reported that there are no new names of recipients right now. However, she has fabric to distribute if anyone is interested in making blocks that can be used for other groups that are making quilts.

Facebook - Gloria Stickney reported no updates.

Newsletter – Ellen Hart reminded anyone who wants to submit newsletter articles that she needs to receive them by the 15th of each month.

Website – As discussed at our prior meeting, if anyone has personal business/skills information to post on our membership listing, please forward it to Tracy Burkart.

Quilt Show – Shirley Sink and Cindi Sullivan are working to establish plans for our 2022 Quilt Show. To that end, Cindi will be contacting previous members to encourage rejoining the guild now that live meetings are being reinstated. Additionally, Shirley, Cindi, and Gina Kostecky will be meeting on May 19 to establish the Quilt Show budget. Prior chairpersons are being contacted to again serve in those positions.

Opportunity Quilt – Linda and Alan Nichols are willing to deliver tickets to anyone selling or buying raffle tickets. Please contact them for arrangements. Tickets are $25 for a book of 30 tickets.

Old Business – Tonight we voted on changes to our by-laws in Article 6, Sections 2 and 3. Section 2 was to establish that Executive Board meetings can be held without advance notice and Sections 3 refers to meeting notices. Tracy Burkart made a motion to accept these changes and Gloria Stickney seconded that motion. The changes were approved with 19 Yeas and 1 Nay.

New Business – There was no new business this evening.

Show and Tell –

Alan Nichols – Received a trophy in a recent barbecue competition.

Julie Bodford - Presented her One Block Wonder quilt.

Tracy Burkart - Showed her Heart quilt, which will be donated to Ethiopia.

Linda Nichols - Presented her No Point Stars quilt.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00.
