Guild Sew Day

Our Quilt Show has taken a lot of time for quilt finishing in the last months. I'm ready to start a new project. Hope you are ready to join your friends at our June Sew Day with new or UFOs projects.

We will meet Monday June 10 at the Swisher Center in room 113. Let's start at 9:30 and finish by 3:30. It's never too early to start on your entry for our 2026 Quilt Show. The Center's outside doors are locked for security purposes. If you are the first to arrive, please enter the building at the glass doors to the left at the back of the building. Then enter room 113, turn on lights and prop the back door open with the blue trashcan.

See you there. Any questions, call me.

The 2024 quilt show is history!

I would like to thank all the members who contributed to our successful show. Whether you entered a quilt, worked on a committee, made donations, sold tickets, or volunteered before or during the show, you were a valuable help to this effort. Thank you also to those of you who recruited the husbands, relatives and friends who pitched in during set up and take down.

I am grateful for the cheerful and helpful efforts that everyone put forth.

Ellen Hart

Thirty-two members entered 118 quilts in the show. Twenty-six of those members were awarded at least one ribbon. Congratulations to all the ribbon winners!

Viewer's Choice went to Cindi Sullivan's Buddha Belly!

Comments about the quilts were positive, viewers were amazed at the variety and talent of our makers.

Numbers from the show won't be final before our next meeting but we know we had 396 attendees according to the bracelet count.

Our raffle quilt was delivered to Lee Smith from West End, NC on the Monday after the show.

Raffle quilt update

Thanks to all of you for helping sell Raffle Quilt tickets. My records indicate $720.00 was received just from member sales. Your help is greatly appreciated. Our final sales amount will be announced at a later date when all expenses are calculated for our net profit. We had a fabulous show!
