June 2

Hello Everyone,

Thank you to everyone who was able to make it out to Sedge Garden for the last meeting. As a reminder, our meetings will remain there throughout the month of August.

Thank you to all the members who have signed up to volunteer so far in some capacity for our 2026 Quilt Show. There are still spots to fill on sub-committees as well as that of Chairperson. Please consider giving your time and talents where you can so that we may set a date and get the Show on the Road.

Have a great rest of the month and I will see you in June.

Amy

Welcome Sally Wincze from Jonesville, NC. She creates art quilts and wearable art and will present "Evolution of a Fiber Artist"

GUILD SEW DAY

Our Sew Day will be held on Monday, June 9th at the Swisher Center Room 114. We have reserved the room from 9:00 till 4:00. Join your friends for a day of uninterrupted time to sew, cut out projects, baste your quilt top or handwork. It's a great time to share your hobbies and visit. Bring your supplies, electrical cords, lights and snacks or lunch. Vending machines are located in the student lounge.

The outside door is locked for security purposes. If you are the first to arrive, enter the building through the glass doors to the left of the building. The hallway door will be unlocked. Use the blue trashcan to keep the outside door open for future arrivals. The outside door will automatically lock if it closes.

Any questions.

Quilts of Valor

At the meetings I have easy block kits, or strip kits, and Quilt-as-you-Go QOV quilts. Please consider taking one or two kits home with you. We now have 22 names and 6 quilts completed. I also have several quilts that need labels and/or binding.

If you would like fabric to make a quilt using your own pattern, please reach out to me at the number below and I can get fabric cut for you. Please text me at 336-817-3347 or email me at quiltedsanity@aol.com.

I also would like to thank Hope and Nicole for agreeing to take over Quilts of Valor. Thanks so much.

Tracy Burkart

We will have a 2025 Fall Retreat at Camp Walter Johnson on September 22-25, 2025, and a 2026 Summer Retreat in June 2026 at Haw River State Park. For information and registration, please go to our website www.hottqg.com/retreats.html. Last day to sign up for the Fall retreat is the July meeting.

Julie Bodford Memorial Retreat Scholarship

If you are interested in going to retreat but can't afford it, please email quiltedsanity@aol.com and I will add your name to the list for the scholarship. Julie's husband, Tom, is graciously providing a four-day private room scholarship to our Fall Retreat. Everyone who has signed up is also eligible. Drawing will take place at the June meeting.

Tracy Burkart

Amy Illerbrun opened the meeting at 6:30 pm. Visitors and new members were greeted with a hardy welcome.

Sharon Dorminey introduced our guest speaker, JoAnn Nichols. JoAnn displayed a wonderful trunk show of her award-winning quilts, most of them being hand quilted.

Business Meeting

After a brief recess so members and guests could get a close up look at JoAnn's quilts, Amy continued the meeting with anyone who had someone to keep in our thoughts and prayers. Members who had May birthdays were recognized.

Treasurer's Report: Penny Nolan stated the balance in the checking account was $13,098.32. Janet Downing made a motion to accept the report and Ellen Hart seconded the motion. The members voted unanimously to accept the report.

April Meeting Minutes: The minutes from the April meeting were presented in the newsletter. There was no discussion or concerns with the minutes and Hope Geoghegan made a motion to accept the minutes and Tracy Burkart seconded the motion. The minutes were unanimously approved.

Door prizes were awarded.

Raffle: Penny Nolan shared the raffle tickets are ready for members to purchase or to check out to sell. All tickets sales should be returned by the August meeting. Anyone interested in selling tickets at other guild meetings should contact Penny.

Quilt Show: Amy Illerbrun discussed the Quilt Show committee information that was included in the newsletter. Several members volunteered to help chair committees for the show. After a group discussion about the importance of finding a chairperson for the show, a sign-up sheet was passed around the membership to sign up if they had interest in the committee. Amy expressed the need to have a chairperson by the June meeting.

Community Outreach: Linda Fishell recognized members who returned quilts or stages of quilts and encouraged all members to participate. A Community Outreach sew day is scheduled for Saturday, May 10 at the Kernersville Library, 10:30-2:30. Bring your sewing machine and iron.

Quilt of Valor: Tracy Burkart will finish out her term as QOV chair but will be stepping down after her term. Hope Geoghegan and Nicole Corbin volunteered to co-chair this committee.

Sew Day: The next sew day will be Monday, May 12th at Swisher Center. Cindy Sullivan stated the sew days will continue at Swisher Center throughout the summer and the rest of the year.

Guild meetings will be held at Sedge Garden Community Center throughout the summer and resume at Swisher Center at our October Meeting.

Sheila Dunlap shared that Bethel United Methodist Church on Haw River Road has a monthly Veteran's breakfast and all Veterans are welcome to attend. Contact Sheila for more information.

Show and Tell projects were presented by the members.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15.

QUILT SHOW GETAWAY

Hey Guild members. Tickets are ready to be sold. Please see Penny Nolen for as many tickets as you need to sell. We need all members on board to get to our 600 ticket sales or beyond.

I do need help from anyone who is willing to visit an area Guild during their meeting to give information on our Fundraiser and sell tickets. Please let me know, if you would like to help out. Call me at 336-971-9107 or see me at the next meeting.

LETS GET OUT THERE AND SELL, SELL, SELL!
