Hello All,

It was nice to be back into our meetings and see everyone! It's going to be a Great year.

If you enjoyed our hospitality table, I would like to see someone volunteer to chair the position. The other alternative would be our members alternating and bringing a treat share. This month's treats were provided by Penny Nolan, Stacy Grammar and myself. The coffee will always be provided, so no worries there.

Our next Board meeting will be 1pm Thursday, November 7th at the Paddison Library in Kernersville. If you would like to be added to the agenda, please let me know.

Have a wonderful rest of your month.

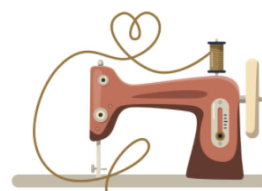

Amy Illerbrun

November 4

Dan Low, machine technician for Sew Original, will give an interesting presentation on sewing machines and their maintenance.

After a long career as an engineer, Dan became a Bernina Repair Technician and will share some of his knowledge about machines and how to avoid problems. He will also take questions about machine services.

Veteran's Day is the second Monday in November (11th) and the Swisher Center is closed. So... We will meet on the THIRD Monday, November 18. Our time is the same - 9:30 to 3:30. Days on the calendar are clicking away fast till Christmas holidays. Do you have quilts and handmade gifts that need to be completed? Join us for uninterrupted sewing time. It's a fun time with friends.

If you are the first to arrive, enter the building through the glass doors at the left of the building. Our sewing room 114 is open from the inside hallway. Prop the door open as a signal for other members. Please remember to place tables and chairs in original positions before you leave.

Minutes - 10/7/2024

Amy Illerbrun opened the meeting at 6:30 pm. She welcomed our visitor and new member.

Amy and Hope Geoghegan thanked the guild members for their continued prayers for those impacted by Hurricane Helene.

Tracy Burkart introduced the sisters from "The Quilter's Gallery," Patty Cline and Cindy Page (aka The Pizza Girls). The sisters sell fabric, provide classes, workshops and programs. During their presentation the ladies showed many of their beautiful quilts. After the business meeting members were welcomed to view and purchase their patterns and fabrics. If interested, members may sign-up to receive their newsletter at www.quiltersgallery.net. Any questions may be emailed to quiltersgallery@gmail.com.

Amy began the business portion of the meeting with congratulations to those who celebrated birthdays in September and October.

Amy asked for a motion to approve the Minutes from the last meeting. Motion was approved by Ellen Freeman and seconded by LaWonne McCoy. Treasurer's report was approved by Lori Procter and seconded by Hope Geoghegan.

Budget approved by Judi Low with a unanimous vote from attending members.

Tracy Burkart (Quilts of Valor) stated that she currently had the names of ten veterans to receive quilts in April 2025. While the program is supported and funded through the guild, the presentation of quilts will be on a weekend day to be determined. Tracy encouraged members to join her in making quilts. Any questions, please contact Tracy.

Linda Fishell (Community Outreach) encouraged all members to assist her in making simple quilts for locally hospitalized leukemia patients. Linda will demonstrate her "Easy, Fun, and Get 'Er Done" quilt technique at the next Guild Sew Day on October 14th. If you plan to sew that day, she asked that the bring your own machine with a walking foot, gray thread and an extension cord.

Ellen Hart asked members to bring completed quilts they wish to donate for the people in Western NC to Sew Day (10/14). There was additional discussion about several other local quilt donation opportunities. Members may also give any donation quilts to Ellen Freeman after October 14th.

Tracy Burkart (Website): Please contact Tracy if you have any changes to the website.

Tracy (Retreat) sent out an email to participants.

Penny Nolen (Treasurer) has refunds for Improv Workshop.

Business meeting was followed by Show & Tell. Guild members presented Mark Craven with 17 baby quilts in honor of Teri Craven's ministry. Mark was very appreciative of this display of member care and support.

Door prizes were distributed.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:35 pm.

The next meeting will be Monday November 4th at 6pm at the Swisher Center.
